

Mallfred Keresturi

The painter and sculptor Mallfred Keresturi was born in Romania in 1954, and has been living and working in Sweden since 1981. After his years at the art academy in Bucharest (1971-1973) he spent several years in different sculpture workshops to further develop his technique. Today his creations vary from oil and aquarelle paintings to bronze and marble sculptures in various shapes and sizes.

His first exhibition was held in 1983 at Galleri St Lars in the Swedish city of Linköping. This has been followed by yearly solo and collectors exhibitions in various locations: Galleri Ingela S (Stockholm), Arbetets Museum (Norrköping), Vadstena Slott (Vadstena), Södertälje Konsthandel (Södertälje), Tensta Konsthall (Tensta) and Romele Konsthall (Lund), Galleri Blå (Linköping), Art Expo 2016 (Milano) to mention a few.

Some of his works can be seen as public decorations, mostly scattered over the region of Linköping. Some of them and their public location are listed below.

Wild horses 2x1,3m 40 sculptures	Wood relief	(Teknikringen 6 Mjärdevi, Linköping)
Linköping coat of arms	Wood relief	(Pionjärgatan, Linköping)
Wallpainting 14x2.5 m	Bronze sculpture	(Lampposts on Stora Torget, Linköping)
Sländan	Oil painting	(Valla Vagnsmuseum, Linköping)
Sculpture	Bronze sculpture	(Library of Nykvarn)
Sculpture		(Tekniska Verken, Linköping)
Sculpture		(Östgöta Correspondenten, Linköping)
Sculpture		(HSB, Linköping)

More of his creations can be viewed on his homepage, www.mallfred.se.